New Customer win

Nexus Management, a provider of specialist IT managed services, is pleased to announce a new contract win with DEGW, a leading international strategic design consultancy, operating from offices in Europe, Asia Pacific and North America.

DEGW has signed a three year global contract for the implementation and management of a new Wide Area Network, NexMail (managed MS Exchange email), Co-location of core applications, PC Lifecycle Management and a global backup strategy and management. In addition DEGW has signed a three year support contract for their European offices in London, Bristol, Glasgow, Milan, Madrid and Munich.

Roger Richardson, CEO of Nexus, commented:

'Nexus specialises in servicing growing companies with high quality IT systems, world class engineers and support staff. DEGW is such a company with a very dynamic and IT literate user base and fits very well in our target market. Whilst this does not have a material impact on the business we are delighted to have the opportunity to provide DEGW with quality IT services and look forward to helping them evolve their use of computing for the benefit of their global business.'

Clive Lewis, DEGW Global Finance Director, commented:

'It s important to us that we can benefit from reliable global IT systems with a consistent support network. Working with Nexus over the past few weeks has already delivered stability to our systems and working with the Nexus engineers provides us with the necessary peace of mind. We selected Nexus because of the knowledge they have in providing service to customers of our particular size and complexity. We are looking forward to a long and mutually rewarding relationship.'
